

Tekirdağ Un-Multirex is committed to:

- 1.Implementing a Food Safety Management System with an aim to produce and supply safe quality end products that meet customers' satisfactions and expectations.
- 2.Comply with legal obligations and to protect the consumers with consistent safe food products through the application of good manufacturing/hygiene practices and HACCP principles.
- 3.Ensuring all employees involved in food production receive appropriate and adequate training in food safety and handling courses.
- 4.Ensuring that both internal and external communications regarding food safety are fully addressed.

The food business operators ensure that:

- 1.Only raw materials from approved sources or certified suppliers are used in food production.
- 2.Recipes or food composition must not be modified without approval from top management.
- 3.All critical control processes are under control.
- 4.Outsourcing of products and/or services complies with expected or predetermined requirements.
- 5.All personnel are committed to the food safety management program to ensure safe food production.
- 6.Restricted known food additives or allergens when used in food must be declared.
- 7.Foods are hygienically packed and supplied in a suitable manner to safeguard consumers' safety and health.

Business performance is attained through the continual improvements of:

- Operational efficiency and customer satisfaction
- Assurance of safe quality production processes
- Assurance of products manufactured within our premises are safe for consumption
- Waste minimization

The Company requires its employees to commit to food safety:

As an employee, it is their responsibility to:

- To observe all food safety regulations and procedures.
- To observe personnel hygiene standards and requirements laid down in the Code of Hygiene Practices.
- To act in a manner of which does not endanger yourself, your work mates, the public and the environment.
- Whenever required, to protect the food safety management system.

Created and/or Modified by:

Date: 01.12.2021
Quality Manager

Checked and Approved by:

Date: 01.12.2021
Executive Board Member